FOREWORD

We treasure the memories of our high school life and realize that through the years they will become even more priceless. Perhaps through this volume we can preserve for ourselves and our friends some of our most cherished memories. As we look back over these pages may our thoughts and hearts dwell once again within the bounds of A. H. S.

THE SCHOOL BOARD OF ASHEBORO CITY SCHOOL

Mr. H. K. Moore

Mr. S. C. Frazier

Mr. D. D. Almond

DEDICATION

The 1950 Ash-Hi-Life is dedicated to two persons—each equally worthy of the honor. In this way we should like to show our appreciation, for all the fine work they have done, to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Still.

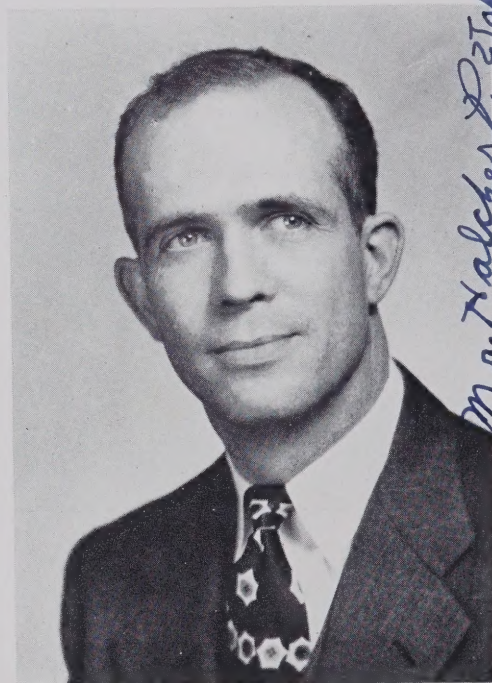

The results of their chorus and band work have been a constant source of enjoyment to all of us.

And so, we say, "Thank you," to the two who have filled our days with music and our lives with song.

CLASS HISTORY

Four years ago a heavy cloud descended on "ole" Asheboro Hi; namely, a new class of "green" freshmen. We were scared, yet thrilled to be high students at last. Now that we are ready to graduate, we are going to miss the school, the teachers, and our fellow-classmates.

Looking back over the years, we remember many delightful things—the thrill of entering high school; our first annual (We nearly read all the words off the pages); our class rings (we went around waving our hands at every one for months), the excitement of planning and attending the Junior-Senior prom (We danced on clouds amid the beautiful decorations which carried out the theme of Stardust, completely forgetting the work and headaches of giving the dance); that wonderful Junior play, in which June Cheek, Eleanor Sue Allen, Jean Stafford, Joan Cross, Jo Anne Craven, Ermel Lee McPherson, Imogene Cox, Ronald Morgan, Ned Beeker, Gilbert Lane, and Marvin Galloway made up the cast.

Perhaps we are more partial to this year because it is our last; yet it has really been wonderful. At the first assembly we were given the privilege of sitting at the front of the auditorium, and marching out while all the other students stood. Certainly this was a great thrill, which we had long looked forward to.

Throughout the entire four years we have had excellent leadership. In our Sophomore year we elected Howard Seawell, President; Bobby Burrows, Vice-President; Betty Lou Kearns, Secretary; and Frank Cole, Treasurer. Our Junior year Howard Seawell was again elected President, with Ned Beeker as Vice-President, Jo Anne Craven as Secretary, and Marcia Drake as Treasurer. For the final year, when we knew we must have good and dependable leadership, we chose for our President, Bobby Burrows; for our Vice-President, Ned Beeker; for our Treasurer, Betty Lou Kearns; and for our Secretary, Sue Dorsett.

In 1946, our first year in high school, Mr. Guy B. Teachey was our principal. When he became superintendent of the city school system the next year, Mr. George W. Holmes, III became principal. He remained with us two years. Last year he resigned in order to accept a position as assistant professor at U. N. C. Mr. Hatcher P. Story then became principal. About the middle of the school year we selected senior superlatives, colors, mascots, motto, and flower.

Colors: Red and White.

Mascots: Carol McCrary, Sam Rich.

Motto: "Upon The Sea of Life, We Venture Unafraid."

Flower: Carnation.

These years have been fun. Perhaps in later years, we shall look upon them as the best years of our lives. They will always hold a very promiment place in our memories. We shall always remember the teachers and the help they gave us. We shall remember our many friends. Some day we may see many of our very own classmates made famous and we can then say, "Why, I went to school with him."

CLASS HISTORY

We have been part of a group of students for twelve years, now we are ready to become part of a world. It is with a sad heart that we prepare to leave.

As a poet says:

These are the happy times.
We do not know it yet.
But like remembered rimes,
We shall never forget.
These are the days, somehow,
That older years may praise.
I wish we knew it now—
These are the happy days.

Douglas Malloch

CLASS POEM

Twelve years have passed, years of toil and joy.
Every backward look brings a melancholy sigh.
We've nearly reached the parting point
That separates friends, you and I.

All through those years, happy years,
That were spent at Asheboro High,
There prevailed that air of striving,
That air of "do or die."

There wasn't just work those years;
There were games, dances, and fun.
And we'll keep those in our memories,
Where we'll cherish every one.

Some will falter and fall on the way;
Others will rise to heights unknown;
But no matter how far our paths may lead,
Asheboro High School will always be "home."

Oh, God, we pray that you will guide
And strengthen us for perils drawing nigh.
Lead our footsteps towards the right
As now we leave Asheboro High.

June Cheek

LAST WILL

I, Doris Hoover, will all my troubles to Becky Kearns, as I'm getting tired of carrying them.

I, Annie Ruth Pierce, will my place in the Beta Club to my sister, Letha.

I, C. E. King, will my ability to disturb to Billy Lilly.

I, Harold Tuttle, will my ability to pass mechanics to Johnny Campbell.

I, Harris Johnson, leave my ability to flirt with all the women to Jack Lovell and Max Connell.

I, Magdalene Luck, leave my habit of giggling at everything to Carlene Morris, hoping that she gets rid of this habit before I did.

I, Ronald Morgan, hereby will my beloved geography to anyone who thinks he can pass it.

We, Donsy Ingold and Lena Mae Jones, will our perfect friendship to any unfriendly persons.

I, Charles Way, do leave. I hope!!

I, Mary Edith Rollins, bequeath my conceitedness to any "high feeling" Junior.

I, Joan Cross, leave my ability of walking fast and speeding down the hall to Paddie Koonce, in the hope that she will get to more places than I did.

I, Betty Nance, will my ability in bookkeeping to my brother, Norman Ray, and my love for music to anyone who loves it as much as I do.

I, Ermel Lee McPherson, leave my ability to work algebra to Vivian Macon.

I, Sam Clodfelter, leave my ability to manage the football team to Elswick (Earthquake) Smith.

We, Dorothy Scott and Betty Lou Kearns, leave our lasting friendship to some friendless Junior.

We, June Cheek and Patricia Hughes, will our ability to get the "giggling hysterics" over nothing to some poor Juniors who are burdened with the troubles of the world.

We, Harrison Williams and Chuck Zimmerman, hereby leave our reckless driving to Betty Wrape and Betty Callicutt, in the hope that they will do better than we did in breaking the speed laws.

I, "Two Gun" Suggs, left last year.

I, Esther Walker, leave the "Little Grey Ghost" to Norma Holt, hoping that her foot doesn't get as heavy as mine.

I, Jacqueline Rollins, will my Beta Club membership to Lalia Lea Bonkemeyer.

I, Margie Hudspeth, leave my excess weight to some needy Freshman to help fight his way through the crowded halls.

AND TESTAMENT

We, Sue Dorsett and Imojean Cox, leave our silly "giggles" to any Freshman who thinks he can keep them under control better than we did. (We hope he can!)

I, Jean Stafford, will my wittiness to some unhappy Junior, "keep 'em laughing!"

I, Gilbert Lane, leave the job of helping manage football to someone who likes to work.

I, Bobby Patterson, leave my ability to play basketball to Joan Powers.

I, Mary Jane Garner, will my quiet ways to Virginia Presnell.

I, Marcia Drake, will my famous inheritance of the giggle to Paddie Koonce to be used as the signal for changing classes.

I, Bobby Burrows, leave my position as guard to "Fat" Priest, knowing he will do a fine job.

I, Doris Clark, leave my school work to my sister, DeEtte, I'm tired!

I, Bobby Connell, leave my title as "Most Dependable" to Norma Jean Warren, hoping that it will mean as much to her as it meant to me.

I, Pansy Fagge, will my laziness and inability to learn to Hilda Poole, in the hope that she will make better use of the ability she has.

I, Bill Bunting, do will my ability to keep up a car and eat candy in school to David Williams.

I, Dempsey Yarberry, do leave my love for library books to some Freshman who wants it.

I, Lucy Laughlin, do will my oboe to anyone who can do more with it than I did.

I, James Moody, do leave nothing, because I need all I have.

I, Scotty Carper, do will my citizenship grades and ability to get along with teachers to Junior York.

I, Gladys Van Dyke, will the front desk, second row, in Mr. Hunt's room to some Junior who needs to pay attention in class.

I, Harland Creech, III, do bestow all of my textbooks upon some up-coming Senior, so that he, too, might expand his mental ability; therefore causing showers of wisdom to fall upon his noble head.

I, Gurney Ray Kindley, Jr., will my ability to get out of high school to Clay Spencer.

I, Johnny Wilson, do hereby leave to Bobby Morgan my ability to stay awake in class. I hope he uses it more than I did.

I, Annie Ruth Ritch, leave my ability to do algebra to anyone who wants it, especially my two brothers, Earl and Bobby.

LAST WILL

I, Dorothy Saunders, leave my place in high school to my sister, Patsy, hoping she will do better with it than I did.

I, Doris Lewis, do leave, taking with me everything but my books, which I shall leave for some poor Junior.

I, Van Rich, do will my "Blue Bus" and Model T to Allen Holt. Patience, Boy!!

I, Juanita Allen, do leave my ability to graduate on time to Patricia Simmons.

We, Carol Bunting, Carlene Gallimore, and Frances Goins, will our ability to get along so well to Doris Wright, Bettie Hayes, and Helen Wood.

I, Betty Simmons, will my height to a short Junior who some day may have need of being taller.

I, J. C. "Jake" Jarrell, leave my ability to hit home runs to some ambitious athlete.

I, Donald P. Moore, will my love for "dance intermission" to Avis Gosnell.

I, Helen Ball, will my love for algebra to Dorothy Way, in the hope that she can use it in the coming years.

I, Bill Perdue, leave my ability in Bookkeeping to Martha Owens, hoping that she will do better than I.

I, David Dunn, will my ability to play baseball to Wayne Vestal.

I, Marvin Galloway, leave my curly hair and ability to get the car to "Chuck" Holmburg.

I, Joe Trogdon, leave my s-s-stuttering to Don F-F-Funderburke in the hope t-t-that he can get things said q-q-quicker than I-I-I did.

I, Walt Krewson, do make the request that school start later in the morning, so that some sleep-starved Juniors, like myself, can get their forty winks.

I, Sarah Almond, will my truly American blush to Clara Lovett, hoping she can control it and display it only when color is needed.

I, Tiffany "Tip" Hutson, leave my ability to sing while pitching baseball to some silent, sore-arm Junior.

I, Jane Morgan, will my flirtatious ways to anyone who deserves them.

I, Bill Miller, will my love for baseball to my athletic brother, Frank.

AND TESTAMENT

I, Johnnie Hartman, do leave! (Maybe)

We, Hal Jernigan and Frank Cole, leave our speeding, reckless driving, and ability to have wrecks without tearing up our cars to David Elliott, in the hope that he will have better luck than we did.

I, Charles Steed, after a six-year stay in A. H. S., leave! I hope!!

I, Bobby Hooker, will everything I have here (if I leave anything, it'll be an accident) to the Junior with the lowest grades who is fortunate enough to be promoted.

I, Hallie Foster, will my "LOVE" for journalism(?) to any Junior with brains enough to pass it.

I, Eleanor Sue Allen, leave my quiet ways to Delores Henson with the hope that she can be as quiet in class as I have been.

I, Robert Cronk, will my seat in the band to any boy who would like to play a trumpet. I also leave my books to David Williams, plus the books he will receive from the school, so that if he should lose one, he would not lose any time trying to find it.

I, Jo Anne Craven, do will my dimples, my habit of blushing, and my mischievous blue eyes to Betty Jean Callicutt, hoping they get her into less trouble than they did me.

I, Curt McCombs, leave my ability to do algebra II to the fortunate "ones" of A. H. S.

I, Betty Sue Stout, do leave my annoying habits to Sarah Ann Stewart, hoping that she will have as much fun with them as I did.

I, J. C. Smith, being of sound mind do will my half-wit twin, "Blaine Beck", a better time in high school than I had.

I, Elizabeth Sanders, being of sound mind (I think) do leave my favorite spot in front of the building to Peggy Lamar, hoping that she can occupy it as much as I did.

I, "Junior" Seawell, do leave my "odd" basketball shorts to anyone who can wear them.

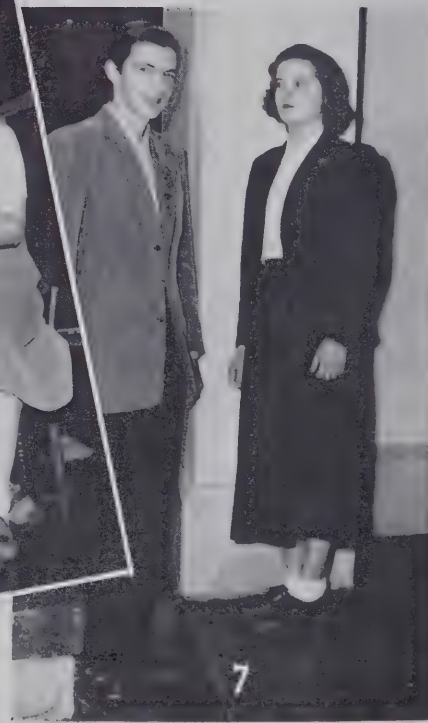

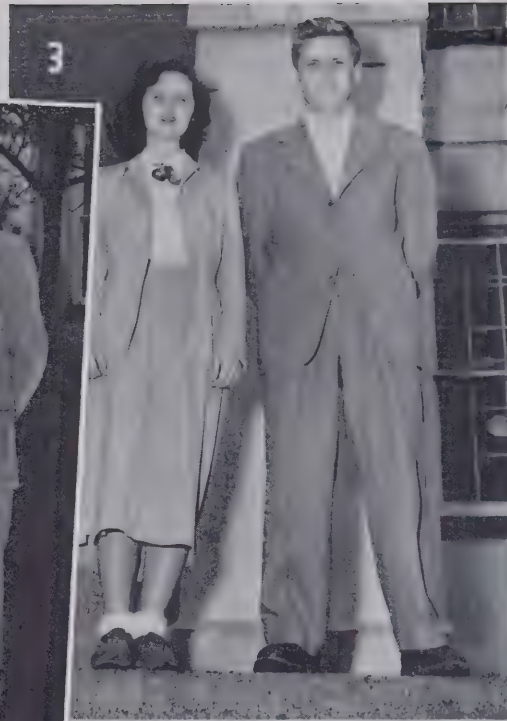

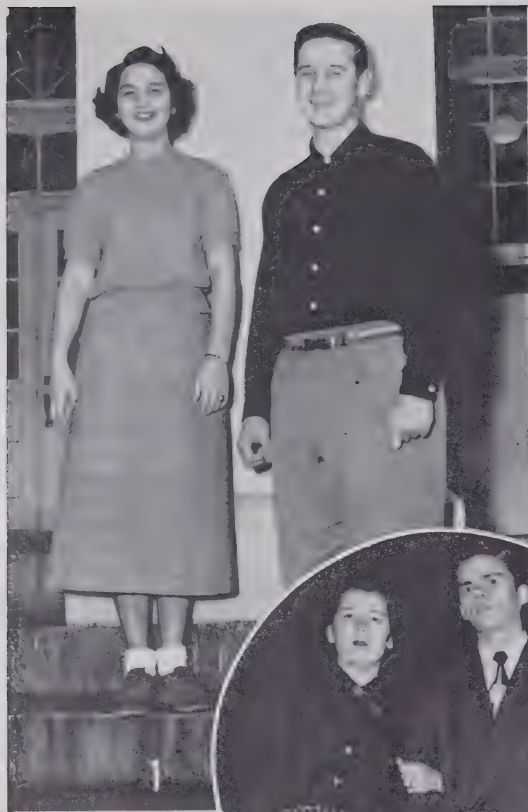

I, Peggy Snyder, do leave my ability to "get along" well with my boy friend to Nancy Snyder, knowing she'll need it.

I, Rachel Smith, will my ability to get by in high school to Myrna D.

I, Ned Beeker, do will my sarcastic ways to some deserving Junior who has "given up" on everything and wants to try something new. (namely Elyswick Smith).

I, Bobby Dantzler, do will my job as class baby to James York.

I, Leon Brown, do leave my ability to work in the library club to Sara Trollinger.

CLASS PROPHECY

"Last call for Chapel Hill, Pittsboro, Siler City, Ramseur, and Asheboro."

"Ticket please." "Move to the back of the bus."

"Well, hello Marcia, fancy meeting you here at Duke after all these years. Wonderful game Duke played today, don't you think?" "Why yes, Ned, that was a good game. Where are you going?" "I'm getting off in Asheboro to see some old friends, and you?" "I'm going to Asheboro; I live there, you know. I left my family at home today." "My, Marcia, we all had fun in Asheboro High School. At the time, we thought it very boring, but we really enjoyed it."

. . . "Well, well, city limits of Asheboro! There's the highway to 'Possum' College — 902. I hear they have made it a state-wide race track. Leon Brown, always finding a racket, had installed parking meters down at the college and has made a fortune."

"You know, Ned, our class of '50 hasn't done half bad in this old world. Most of us are content with life. For instance, I've never seen anyone that looks so happy and content as did Bill and Joan. Oh, little Billy Lilly, Junior! He is really cute. I saw them in their new Hudson just the other day."

"Have you heard about Jo Anne and Alton's engagement? They're going to be married as soon as Alton finishes college. He's been there nine years—!"

"Look, Marcia, there's the Hoover building towering over all the rest. You know, it's a pity she never married. She always said she wanted to be rich. She is just a typical career girl."

"That sign says, Vote for mayor and vote for Seawell. Well, old Junior turned out just as I expected, once a leader always a leader."

"Look, there's Robert Cox's new Drive-In theatre, and the movie there now is 'Night Train to Chattanooga' starring Eleanor Sue Allen!"

"You know, Ned, if it wasn't for Margie Hudspeth Hines, and Imojean Cox (they're both department heads) Belks couldn't open their doors every day."

"Speaking of Belks, I saw June Cheek up there the other day choosing for herself a stylish hat. She has really made a fine English teacher for Asheboro High School. She and the former Pat Hughes (she's now Mrs. Skeen) are still best friends."

"I understand that Asheboro High's football team has chalked up another victory under the able direction of Joe Trogon with Sammie Clodfelter as his fine assistant. Since Bobby Patterson is coaching basketball and Marvin Galloway is in charge of the swimming team at the old Alma Mater, it looks as if the athletic department is made up of alumni."

"I guess you heard the sport commentator announce the other night that Hal Jernigan, the new golf whiz, has just won the National P. G. A.

CLASS PROPHECY

and that J. C. Jarrell, Tip Hutson, and Bill Miller were the big heroes in the Cardinal victory over the Dodgers."

"Ned, did you know that David Dunn, Gurney Kindley, Ronald Morgan and J. C. Smith have bought out the McGill Transportation Company? They really caught a vision of prosperity from their bus driving days at A. H. S."

"I had a delicious steak at Frank Cole and Chuck Zimmerman's new cafeteria recently. They are doing a thriving business, and you can always see some of our old classmates dining there."

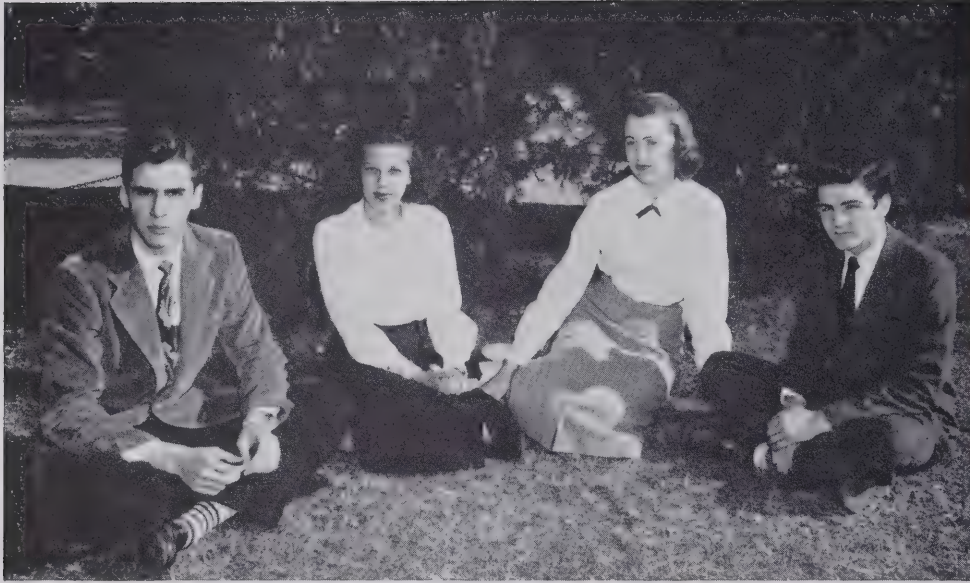

"Oh, by the way, Ned, on my recent vacation to New York I ran into Harris Johnson, who is co-starring with Ermel Lee McPherson in the new hit "North Atlantic." He gave me a ticket to a pro football game, and you could have knocked me over with a feather when Bobby Burrows trotted out on the field with the Chicago Bears. We can be quite proud of Sarah Almond and Harlan Creech. Sarah is a famous author now and Harlan has gained tremendous prestige with all of his compositions. Robert Cronk has made a fine Army Captain; Charles Way is known all over the world as the second Walt Disney and has certainly proved successful. I understand that Walt Krewson and his orchestra are to be here this week-end for a big dance."

"Yes, Marcia, but what about all those who have stayed in Asheboro and are doing well with their varied businesses? For instance, Gilbert Lane has his own service station; Betty Simmons is directing a church choir; Bobby Connell has opened his own dry cleaning plant; Jimmy Moody is the mayor of Balfour; Donald Moore has recently been appointed manager of the local Rose's Dime Store; Van Rich has his own print shop; Jean Stafford is a most efficient court stenographer; Bill Perdue has made an excellent Police Chief; and Bobby Dantzler is manager of the Colonial Food Store."

"It certainly seems as if many of the graduates of 1950 have gone to the top of the ladder, Ned, but we will not forget those who have settled down in or near Asheboro and have contributed maybe more than anyone to this old world by being useful citizens, model housewives, and fine businessmen. People like Carol Bunting, Juanita Allen, Doris Clark, Pansy Fagge, Hallie Foster, Carlene Gallimore, Helen Ball, Mary Jane Garner, Donsy Ingold, Betty Lou Kearns, Jane Morgan, Jacqueline Rollins, Elizabeth Saunders, Rachel Smith, Peggy Snyder, Betty Nance, Annie Ruth Pierce, Ruth Ritch, Edith Rollins, Betty Sue Stout, Gladys Van Dyke, Johnny Wilson, Dempsey Yarberry, Harrison Williams, Lucy Laughlin, Scotty Carper, Bill Bunting, Francis Goins, Magdalene Luck, Bill Linebarrier, C. E. King, Lona Mae Jones, Worth Cox, and Doris Lewis."

"Ned, seeing you really has been nice and catching up with the latest news about the members of our class has been interesting, I still think our class is just the best ever—that good class of '50!"

FOOTBALL

It is a pleasure to welcome to the high school's faculty Lee J. Stone as head football coach. Mr. Stone, a native of Trenton, New Jersey, has distinguished himself at Raleigh and Asheville as a football coach. His outstanding leadership and his ability to inspire the best from those under his guidance have brought forward such stellar performers as Charlie Justice and Jim Cain. Asheboro High School is indeed fortunate to have Mr. Stone here to develop our physical education program.

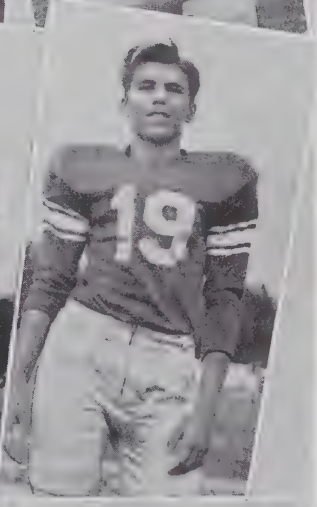

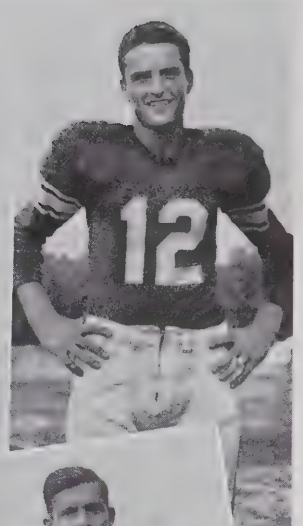

The Asheboro High School Blue Comets came forth with the new look in 1949. They appeared in new uniforms, and under the leadership of their new coach, set up a new offense.

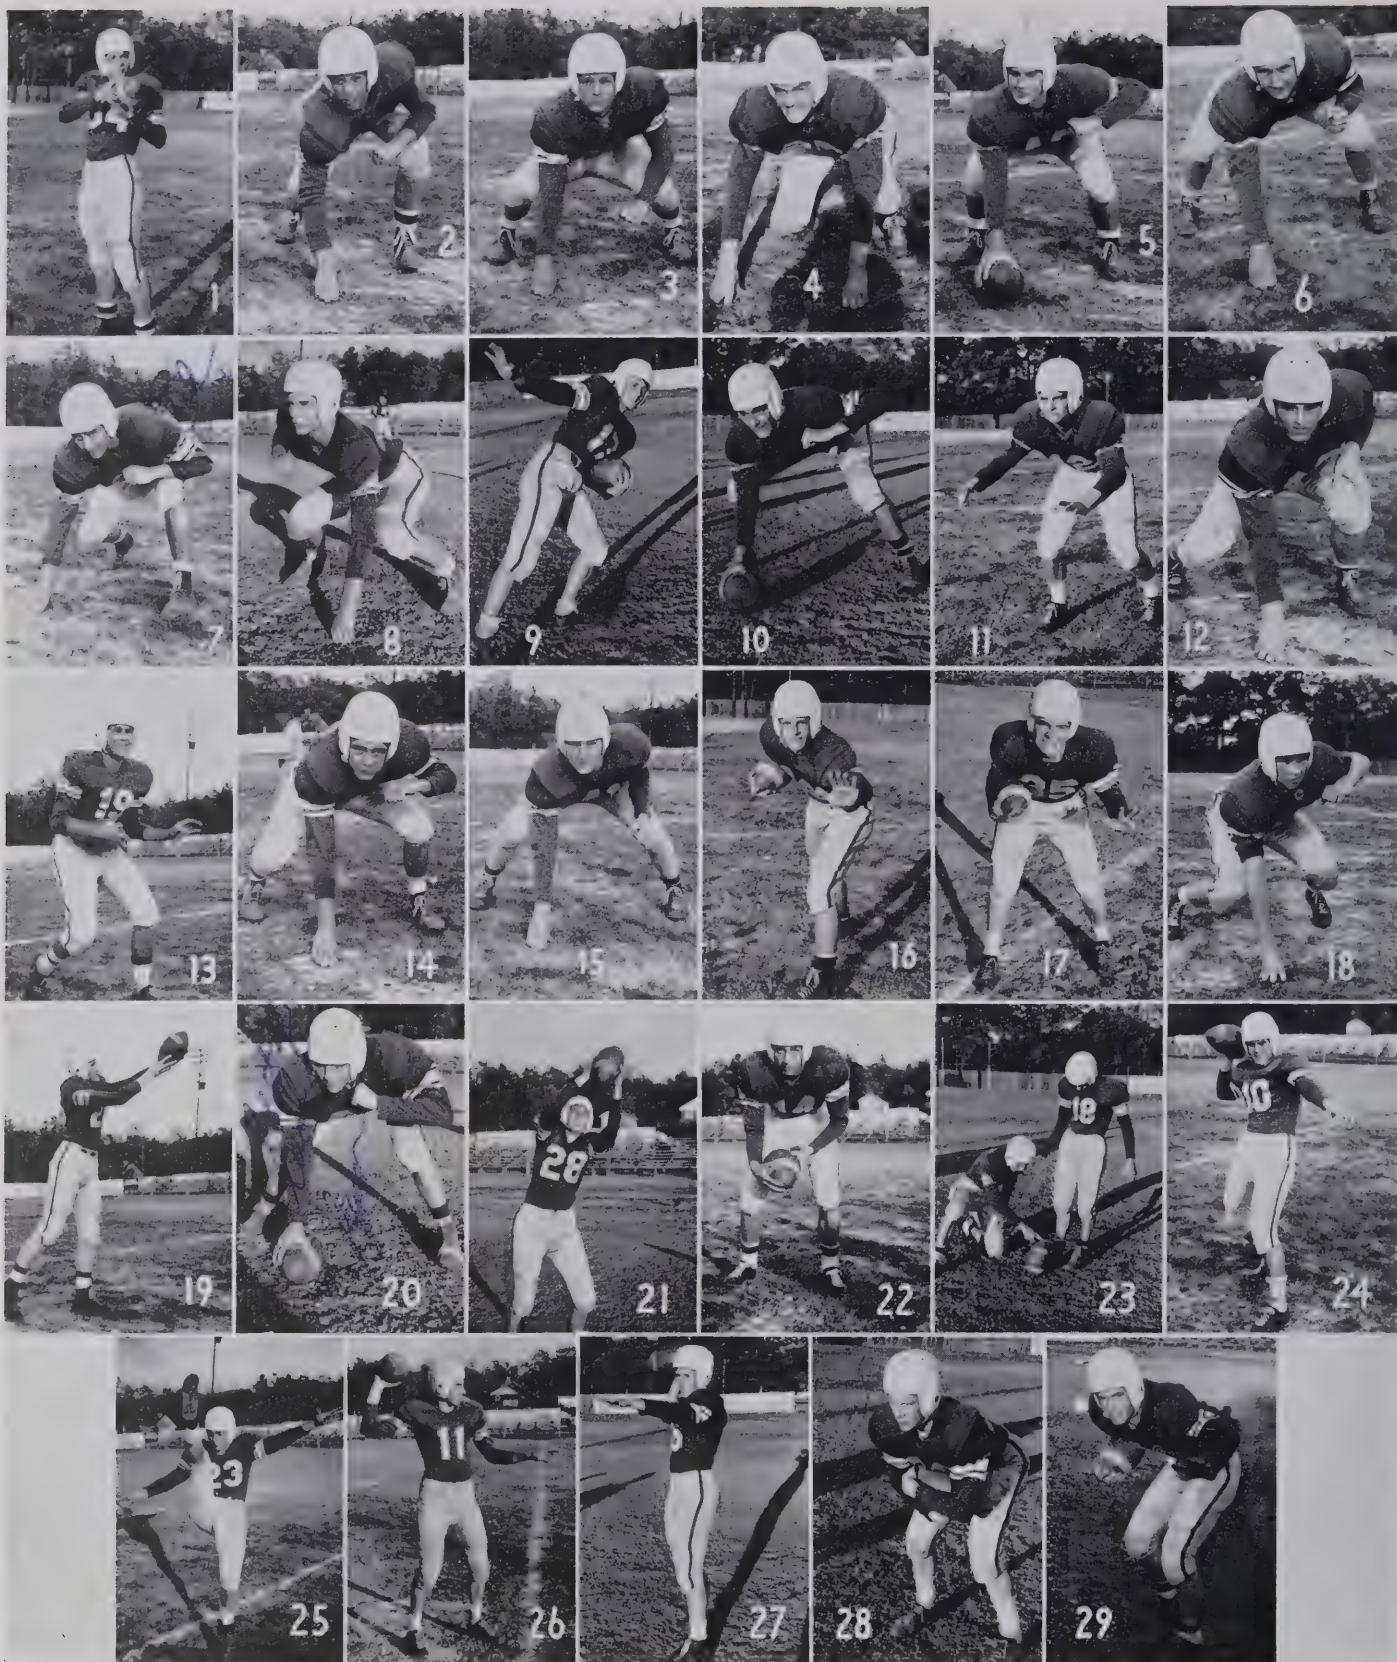

The games won and lost cannot tell the story of the Blue Comets. Although they won only two games, tied two, and lost five, the Comets played aggressive and threatening games throughout the season.

We are proud to have a fine team, as we have in the Blue Comets, to represent our school.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Mr. Warren G. Hawkins, popular athlete and assistant football coach, is the Blue Comets' basketball coach again this year. He has had remarkable success with his Asheboro Cagers producing in 1948 a team which captured second place in the South Piedmont conference. Mr. Hawkins, called "Buddy" by admiring students, was particularly outstanding in basketball at Appalachian, where he graduated in 1947.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Cockerham, Koonce, Powers, Henson, Pugh, Kearns, Brown, Presnell, Walker, Needham, Saunders, Baker, Trollinger, Wrape, Garner, Humble, Maness, McPherson, Marion.

Managers: Peggy Barnard, Elizabeth Watson.

With the return of nine lettermen, the outlook for girls' basketball is indeed bright.

The team elected as their Co-Captains Grace Walker and Paddi Koonce who will be their leaders throughout the year.

For the first time the entire first string is made up of Junior girls, and although the official season has not begun, the girls hold the title of "undefeated" during the practice games they have played.

The probable starting line-up reads as follows: Pugh, Powers, and Walker on the forward end and Garner, Presnell, and Koonce as the guards. Others seeing a lot of action during the game will be Trollinger, who has a nice set shot, and Kearns, a short guard but quick on the break.

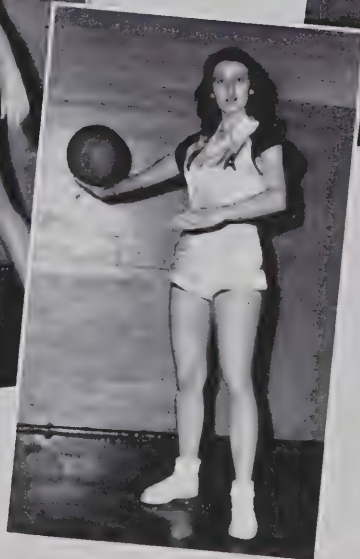

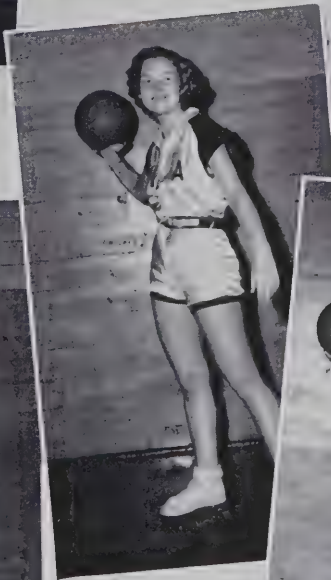

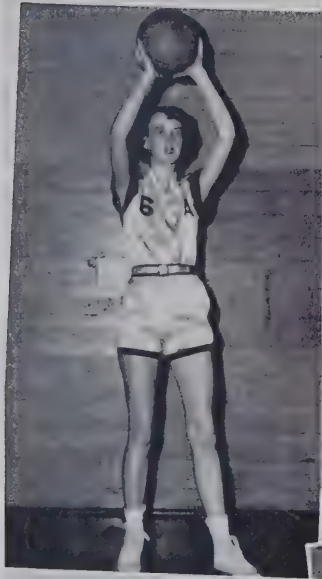

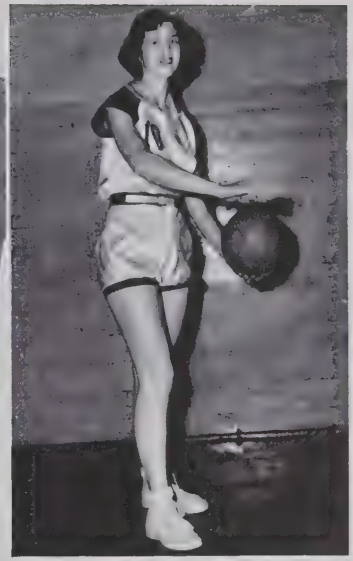

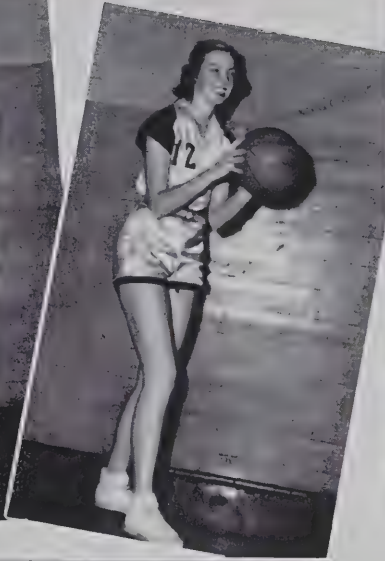

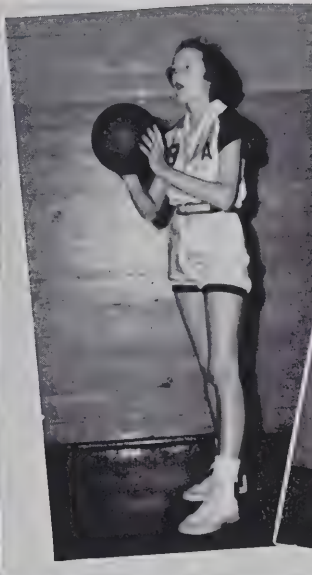

But after all, ours is a team and there is no individual starrng. Let us remember that it takes all eighteen to put us where we are!

Miss Glisson

We have been very fortunate in having with us for the past four years Miss Angelyn Glisson, who is an excellent Girls' Athletic Director.

Miss Glisson hails from Hawkinsville, Georgia. She attended Georgia State College for Women, and came to Asheboro High School highly recommended. Miss Glisson introduced intramural sports in our high school and during the four years they have become one of the outstanding highlights of the year. In the past, she has produced many winning teams in girls' basketball, and we feel sure she will continue to do so in the future.

THE BASEBALL TEAM OF '49

Managers: Charles Holmburg, Lynn Priest.

A number of our best lettermen have returned to the diamond of old A. H. S. From the Junior class, we have Sammie Clodfelter, who shows much promise of being a good man behind the plate; and Tiffany Hutson, who has pulled us through many a rugged contest, is on the mound again. Junior Seawell, a first baseman with an enviable record, comes in again to take honors for the "Comets." To add more punch at the plate, "Jake" Jarrell, a fast man in the field and a hard hitting outfielder, is here again with the same zest he exhibited in the '48 squad. Bill Miller, another good outfielder, is right along with Jake and is expected to make a record worthy of approval. Bobby Burrows, another number one ball player, who helped the "Comets" out of many rough spots in his junior year, is right here again with all his speed and accuracy. The Sophomore class has its share of good men coming in again. Max Connell, who held shortstop through the former season and showed much promise for the oncoming seasons, and David Jarrell, the boy that held the hot corner down, are ready to go all out again for the team. Harvey Broadway did a splendid job at the second sack and showed evidence of quite a hitter, too. His promises are good. James York proved his worth as an outfielder and came in again with the same good spirit and ability.
